Synopsis: Conference committee report for ESB 33. Intimidation and threats. Requires the reporting of a threat received by a school employee or intimidation of a school employee. (This conference committee report makes technical changes and removes provisions that require limited criminal checks for certain persons having contact with school children; provide full compensation and leave for teachers who are assaulted while performing duties; provide leave with pay for teachers living in a county where an emergency is declared; require a local school policy of a parental declaration of responsibilities for a child's education; require school corporations to pay judgments, compromises, and settlements of claims against employees; and provide for the release of certain court records to school superintendents.)
